

Communication

Ability to present information both verbally and in written form with clarity and precision to individuals and a wider audience

Personal Qualities

Demonstrate a range of personal qualities that employers value

Communication

point of view Listen

Students need evidence of being able to: Possible curriculum approaches for this: Written Producing real-life written materials like ■ Write for different audiences and medium marketing materials, posters, reports, articles, a research proposal etc. Sell an idea/product/concept via written communication ■ Blogging tasks ☐ Write reports of various nature Discussion hoard tasks ☐ Write a well constructed sentence and use appropriate language and style Verbal Present confidently ☐ Speed dating with employers Sell an idea verbally Presentations Debate/negotiate/persuade Debates Question/interview Role playing Show empathy and have the ability to Elevator pitch understand and articulate another person's

Personal Qualities

Students need evidence of being: Possible curriculum approaches for this: ☐ Adaptable: able to change according to the Problem based learning needs of the role and priorities Enthusiastic □ Case studies Resilient □ Self-motivated ☐ Reflective blogs/diaries ☐ Committed to continuing personal and professional development □ PDP modules ☐ Reflective – ability to review the quality of work Personal tutoring ☐ Emotionally intelligent, and possessing a high level of interpersonal skills Dissertation guidance/supervision ☐ Able to demonstrate a high level of selfesteem/self efficacy ☐ Stress tolerant ■ Able to resolve conflict

Leadership & Initiative

Initiative – acting before being prompted by others

Leadership – possessing the quality of character and personality to gain the confidence of and lead others

Problem Solving

Selection and use of appropriate methods to find solutions

Leadership & Initiative

Students need evidence of being able to: Possible curriculum approaches for this: Involve others, encouraging their ideas Placement opportunities Provide feedback to others

- ☐ Recognise people's strengths and weaknesses ☐ Group/collaborative tasks
- ☐ Take responsibility ☐ Group project work
- ☐ Make decisions ☐ Constructing criteria on which performance may be judged
- Lead by example

Problem Solving

| Students need evidence of being able to:              | Possible curriculum approaches for this: |
|---|--|
| ☐ Identify problems and possible solutions            | ☐ Problem based learning                 |
| ☐ Think creatively to solve problems                  | ☐ Group problem-solving tasks            |
| ☐ Take into consideration various stakeholders' views | ☐ Reports                                |
| ☐ Use questioning/investigative skills to find out    | ☐ Scenario based learning tasks          |
|   | ☐ Case studies                           |

Teamwork

Can work constructively with others on a common task

Digital Identity

Ability to manage identity and personal branding created and perceived online

Teamwork

Students need evidence of being able to:

- ☐ Work effectively as part of a team to complete a task
- ☐ Maintain positive networks with various working partners
- Work to deadlines as a team to support your colleagues/peers
- ☐ Involve others, encourage their point of view and listen to their ideas

Possible curriculum approaches for this:

- ☐ Group work/collaborative tasks
- ☐ Doing real projects for a customer in a team
- ☐ Group wikis for creating content or solving problems
- ☐ Snowballing tasks: which might start with pair-based work with the groups progressively combining to produce a larger-group response to the challenge set

Digital Identity

Students need evidence of being able to: Possible curriculum approaches for this: ☐ Present themselves online to perspective Blogging employees (via LinkedIn, online cv, ePortfolio) Use of social networks to share ideas and Use various mediums appropriately according discussing appropriate topics to audience e.g. blog, email, social network Creating a LinkedIn profile and Twitter profile Build a professional network online for professional use Show awareness of how to manage their own Creating an ePortfolio to showcase work digital identity Building a professional network using social media Discussions about professional ethics in social media

Planning & Organising

Ability to work out how to schedule available resources and activities in order to meet an objective

| Students need evidence of being able to: | Possible curriculum approaches for this: |
|--|--|
| -                                 |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
| -                                 |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |

Planning & Organising

Students need evidence of being able to: Possible curriculum approaches for this:

- ☐ Prioritise tasks and workload
- Plan for the future
- ☐ Work under pressure and meet deadlines
- Multitask

- E-portfolios
- ☐ Doing real projects for a customer
- ☐ Other project work (group or individual)
- ☐ Producing a research or project plan