An initiative used to welcome you to the University by creating a strong academic community in the first weeks of term. It’s about getting to know you and you getting to know important members of staff.

Key aims:
- Stimulate excitement about the subject
- Develop an academic community
- Support inclusion
- Encourage students to work together
- Develop habits of full-time study

When: First 2 weeks before main timetable. Led by academic team.